
HOUSE OF MAJARA

Social Media Launch Strategy

"A fragment of that place, made wearable."

Prepared by Have Strategy | September 2026 | Confidential

THE BRAND AT A GLANCE

A Publisher, Not a Perfume Company

House of Majara is a fragrance house built on a chapter model. Each Indian state becomes a collection; each fragrance maps to one specific place and one specific art form. Pre-launch, the brand introduces itself as a Pan-Indian house. At launch, the first chapter is revealed: Odisha.

THE TAGLINE

*"This isn't a fragrance about a place.
It's a fragment of that place,
made wearable."*

Pre-launch: "that place" = India broadly.

At launch: "that place" = Odisha, specifically.

the relationship.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Three Tiers, One Shared Mindset

PRIMARY

Culturally Rooted Global Buyer

24-38 | Metro India & Abroad

Self-purchases first (packaging + scent pull), then gifts. Compliments start within a week, driving organic word-of-mouth.

SECONDARY

Odia Diaspora Professional

24-35 | Living Outside Odisha

Earliest adopter, likely most loyal. Buying Majara is a quiet act of identity. Worth a dedicated content thread post-launch.

TERTIARY

Conscious Gift Buyer

26-45 | Any City, Culturally Curious

Needs "story, not object" framing. Gifts Majara because it says something a generic luxury item cannot.

CONTENT BUCKETS

Six Buckets, Phase-Adapted

● India's Hidden Chapters

ORIGIN + SCALE | D02 Pre-Launch

Pan-Indian cultural depth: Rajasthan fort gates, Kashmir shawl weaving, Meghalaya root bridges. India as a library of unseen places.

3x / week

● Fragrance Heritage

QUALITY + ORIGIN | D02 Pre-Launch

India's fragrance culture: attar traditions, temple rituals, regional scent customs. Position the house as a connoisseur.

2x / week

● Founder Arc

STORY + PRIDE | D03 (light pre-launch)

Three roots: cultural wound, personal passion, redirected energy. No collection specifics pre-launch.

1x / week

Chilika, Konark, Raghurajpur, Koraput. Specific, intimate. Painter's Journey arcs. Begins at launch.

3x / week post-launch

● Community & Diaspora

PRIDE + ORIGIN | D02/D03 Post-Launch

Odia diaspora content, "Carry home with you," festival tie-ins, UGC. Activates after Chapter One is revealed.

1-2x / week post-launch

"Fragments of India"

Anchored to: "Every Indian place has a soul. We're building the house that translates them into scent."

THE CONCEPT

The house introduces itself through India's cultural depth, not a specific state. Each week surfaces a different facet of India's hidden heritage: fort gates, weaving traditions, temple rituals, regional scents, vanishing art forms. The word "fragment" recurs. No collection is named. No state is singled out. The audience is primed to see India as a library of chapters, with Majara as the publisher.

WHAT IT ACHIEVES

- Builds Majara as a Pan-Indian house (not "an Odisha brand")
- Creates anticipation: which state is Chapter One?
- Establishes the publisher metaphor before proving it
- Makes the Odisha reveal feel earned, not assumed
- D02 visual language (gateway, royal tones) dominates 90%+

WEEKLY CONTENT MIX (Sep pre-launch)

"The Painter's Journey"

Anchored to: "Places have a soul. I translate it into scent." Begins only after Odisha is revealed.

A fictional Odia painter travels to each of the four places, documenting what they see, feel, and translate into art. This is Direction 03's signature content, activated post-launch to deepen the Odisha Collection after the big reveal.

ARC 1 The Departure

The painter leaves home. Why are they going? What calls them to Odisha?

Journal-style statics, handwritten captions

ARC 2 Chilika: Salt Air

First sketches of the lake. Dawn light, fishing nets. Water and salt become vocabulary.

WIP sketches, time-lapse painting, field notes

ARC 3 Konark: Stone Whispers

The painter at the Sun Temple. Geometry, shadow, carved stone. Ritual meets form.

Close-up detail carousels, ambient reels

ARC 4 Raghurajpur: Every House Paints

The only village where every resident is a practicing artist. Color, rain, earth.

Split-screen: sketch vs. real Pattachitra

ARC 5 Koraput: Valley of Secrets

Spice markets, mist, Saura art. The most intimate chapter of the journey.

Moody reels, handwritten poems, Saura close-ups

How the Brand Storyline Synchronises

One story arc, told in sequence: Pan-Indian gateway (D02) builds the house; the Odisha reveal (D02 hero) proves the model; the Painter's Narrative (D03) deepens the first chapter.

01

FEEL INDIA

"Fragments of India" (D02)
Pan-Indian cultural depth,
no state singled out yet

"Every place has a soul..."

02

TRUST THE MAKER

Fragrance heritage + quality
IFRA, kewda, attar traditions
Founder arc (personal only)

"French oils, Indian soul."

03

DESIRE THE MYSTERY

Silhouettes + waitlist
Names tease, state hidden
"Chapter One is coming"

"Be the first to carry..."

04

REVEAL THE CHAPTER

"Chapter One is Odisha"
Full packaging + brand film
4 fragrances, 4 places

"You're carrying a story."

05

DEEPEN THE STORY

Painter's Journey (D03)
Craft forms, diaspora pride
UGC, compliment loop

"A fragment of that place..."

SYNC RULES

1. Pre-launch is D02 only (90%+). D03 appears only as Founder voice-overs, with no collection or state detail. Painter's Journey is held back entirely until post-launch.
2. The state name (Odisha) does not appear in any pre-launch content. Silhouettes, SKU names, and waitlist all tease without revealing.
3. Launch day is the dramatic pivot: "Chapter One is Odisha." This must feel like news, not a confirmation of something already known.
4. Post-launch, D03 grows from 10% to 40% of content. D02 continues for brand-level announcements. The two directions now run in true parallel.
